

Speech : Elementary Language

- Video Learning Squad (social communication enrichment)
- Heggerty.org
 - Complete one activity each day
- Scholastic learn at home
 - This website has 20 days of lesson ideas broken up by grade level. It can be used to support your student's language learning.
 - It directs you to set up a free account once you select a grade level.
 - To get access to an online library, e-mail speech@vbglencoecharter.org to request being added to the class.
- www.abcya.com
 - Choose the appropriate grade level and complete any reading game to continue supporting language development

Speech: Middle School Language

- Video Learning Squad (social communication enrichment)
 - To get access to an online library, e-mail speech@vbglencoecharter.org to request being added to the class.
- www.scholastic.com/learnathome
 - This website has 20 days of lesson ideas broken up by grade level. It can be used to support your student's language learning.
 - It directs you to set up a free account once you select a grade level.
- Ereadingworksheets.com
 - Go to worksheets by grade on the left hand side of the screen. Select your grade.
 - Complete one worksheet per day to enhance language skills.
- www.abcya.com

- Choose the appropriate grade level and complete any reading game to continue supporting language development

SPEECH RESOURCES FOR PARENTS

Articulation: if your student is working on speech sounds, look back on previous homework assignments and choose those sounds to work on rather than attempting to introduce a new sound.

- Mommyspeechtherapy.com
 - This website has great resources for all the different speech sounds your student might be working on. Click free downloads and scroll down to see all the different sounds in different positions at word, sentence and story levels.
- Home Speech Home word list

CONTACT INFORMATION

- ★ Email for speech: speech@vbglencoecharter.org
- ★ Victoria Richard (elementary school therapist)
- ★ Mitzi Maddox (middle school therapist)